The London Gazette:

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 26. to Monday May 30. 1681.

Cadiz, May 2.

THis day arrived here Capt. Langston from Tangier, going for England with the Articles of Peace, concluded by Sir James Leslie, between His Majesty of Great Britain, and the Emperor of Morocco for four years.

Brussels, June 3. On Saturday last the Nations agreed to the renewing the Imposts upon Beer, with so much readiness, that the Prince of Parma, to let them see how well he takes this their chearful compliance, has resolved to set the Deacon of the Gardiners, who is a Prisoner at Vivord, at liberty. The last Spanish Ordinary brought his Highness, as we are informed, Bills of Exchange for a very considerable Sum of Money. The disorders at Liege increase daily; that City has sent two of their Magistrates to Paris (and the Elector of Cologne has at the same time, sent thither the Baron de Landen) to sollicite that Court on their behalf.

Hague, June 3. Yesterday the Prince and Princess of Orange returned hither.

Marseilles, May 27. We have an account of two Algerines lately taken by the English Frigats, viz. the Golden-Horse of 48. and the Rose of 24 Guns. By a Vessel arrived here from the Coast of Barbary we have advice that the Moors have taken Mamora from the Spaniards by Assault.

Paris, June 4. The Dauphiness has had several Fits of an Ague, for which she has been let Blood. The Duke d'Enghien is likewise indisposed, which has brought the Prince of Condé to Town from Chantilly.

Salisbury, May 16. At a Common-Council holden for this City on Wednesday the 27th of April last past, by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistance of the said City, it was unanimously ordered and agreed, That the following Address be Humbly presented to His most Sacred Majesty.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of Your Majesties City of New Sarum; being this day in Common-Council Assembled, and taking into our serious Consideration, Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration, which was Read and Published in the Cathedral and Parochial Churches of this City on Sunday last past: Do think it as well our Duty, as it is our Inclination, to take the first opportunity of unanimously Presenting to Your Sacred Majesty, our most Humble Thanks: That (in the Place, and at the time of enjoying our Religious Worship established by Law, and supported by Your Majesties Royal Protection) Your Majesty is pleased (in the presence of God) to renew to us, all those often repeated Assurances which Your Majesty hath given us, of extirpating Popery from amongst us, (to which end we cannot but take notice with all Dutiful Satisfaction; That Your Majesty hath newly issued out Your Commands, for a strict execution of the Laws both Ecclesiastical and Civil, in order thereunto) As also of Redressing all our Grievances, and of Governing according to the Fundamental and Established Laws of this Kingdom; whereof (notwithstanding the groundless Insinuations of ill-meaning Men to the contrary) All reasonable and sober Men are, and ought to be most entirely convinc'd.

Nor may we forbear most Humbly taking notice, of Your Majesties indefatigable Care and Pains for the Preservation of Tangier, in the midst of so many great Streights and Difficulties; by supporting with Supplies out of Your Majesties own Stores, a City of Christians amongst Mahumetans, of that Importance to Trade, and in that extremity of danger to be lost, which, nothing but God Almighties Goodness, assisting Your Princely Undertaking, could possibly effect; and for which, our Posterity, as well as our selves, will ever be oblig'd to praise God.

And we do on our parts, most Humbly Beseech Your Majesty to be assured, of our sincere, and perfect Acquiescence under Your Majesties most Gracious Government; of our equal and impartial Detestation of all Popish and Phanatical Principles and Parties, tending to Sedition and Rebellion; and of our resolute and stedfast Adherence to Your Majesties Government, both in Church and State, as now by Law established,

In Defence whereof, and of Your Majesties most Sacred Person (whom God long preserve) we do with humble Confidence, most chearfully offer to Your Majesty, the Command of our Lives and Fortunes; and that not only out of an entire and Zealed Principle of Allegiance, but also out of a deep Sence, that in the Preservation and Security of Your Sacred Majesties Life, and just Prerogative, all our Lives and Liberties do consist.

And the Common-Council meeting again on Friday last our Mayor acquainted them, that the said Address had been presented to His Majesty, and that His Majesty had very Graciously received it as a Testimony of their Loyalty and Affection to Him and His Government, which the Common-Council heard with great satisfaction, and a most dutiful Acknowledgment of His Majesties transcendent Goodness to them and all His Loyal Subjects. And at the same time was presented to the Mayor, and the said Common-Council, a Paper Subscribed by above four hundred of the most substantial Citizens and Inhabitants of this City, as follows.

To the Right Worshipful the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of the City of New Sarum.

WE the Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, whose Names are under-written, being as deeply sensible as your selves of the late ill Construction which hath been put upon His most Sacred Majesties Government, both by Popish Plots, and Phanatical Contrivances, and being as joyfully ready to Declare to the World, as well our Dutiful Loyalty to His Majesty, as our Humble Acknowledgments for His late Gracious Declaration; In Testimony of our hearty Concurrence with all Your Protestations, of most Resolutely adhering to the Monarchy and Church of England by Law established; do give you our unfeigned Thanks for your late Address to His most Sacred Majesty, and do resolve by the Conformity of our Lives and Actions to so Loyal and Laudable an Example, to convince the World, that we are as sincerely Obedient, and affectionately firm to our Princes Government, as your selves, or any of His good Subjects whatsoever.

Rochester, May 27. Yesterday their Majesties came to view the Navy and Dock at Chatham, where they were attended by the Trained Bands of this City, as likewise by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-
